Dear Mr. Weisberg, April 12, 1988

This is to acknowledge yours of March 29.

I am frantically busy these days trying to beat my MS into shape. I have to check so many facts.

I was going through your POST MORTEM recently and was much struck by Chapt. 22 HADES - NOT CAMELOT about the response of Robert F. Kennedy to the assassination of his brother.

Would you be willing to share your correspondence with

RFK with me?

I have always believed that Bobby was a hostage of J. Edgar Hoover. Hoover knew too much about him and Jack. Bobby would do anything for Hoover to keep him from leaking the dirt in his files. Tony Summers' book on Marilyn Monroe clearly indicates this. Bobby had to endorse Hoover's solution to the assassination. If he didn't, Hoover could ruin his political career.

Best, John M.
